About me

My name is Abdul halim, I graduated from Firat University in 2022, Department of Software Engineering.

2022 - In April, I started to work as a Backend Developer at Logical Defense.

2022 - In November, I continued to work in the Logical Defense company and started working as FullStack Developer.

I would like to state that I have reached a good level by developing the technologies I use in the projects myself.

I have the ability to work in a team, to communicate well with all my teammates, and to do research.
